

Greetings,

BPOE, The Benevolent Protective Order of Elks. Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love, and Fidelity. The corner stones of our order, we are one of the largest Charities in the U.S.A., be loud and proud and share with friends, neighbors, and family. Sponsor someone today!

October 4th we are having our District Deputies inspections at 4:00 with dinner to follow, make your reservations for Thursday and join us, followed by our Lodge Meeting.

Monday night Elk bowling league is underway, but we still have openings for more bowlers. Every Wednesday night we have something to come down to the lodge for. Trivia every other Wednesday night, and Game night on the Wednesday nights without trivia. Game night being anything from bowling, cards, board games, etc. just come on down and have a great time! Remember it's only 8 more months to summer. Great food and beverages, and great friends to hang out with.

Stop in at the lodge, and remember a guest is always welcome. Check out our activities and events listed on our calendar.

Your ideas and concerns are important to me. If there is something you have noticed or would like to see, contact me at dalewausau248@hotmail.com.

NEWS FROM THE LODGE SECRETARY

With school back in full swing, high school seniors planning on continuing their educations in college must start thinking of how to pay the costs. The Elks Most Valuable Student program can help. Each year the Elks awards scholarships at the local, state and national level. Counselors in area high schools know of this program and can help their students complete the on-line application that must be completed by November 15.

Hope to see you at the Lodge, Ridge
